

Glandularia tampensis

Photo by Mary Ellen Gotto. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Tampa Vervain

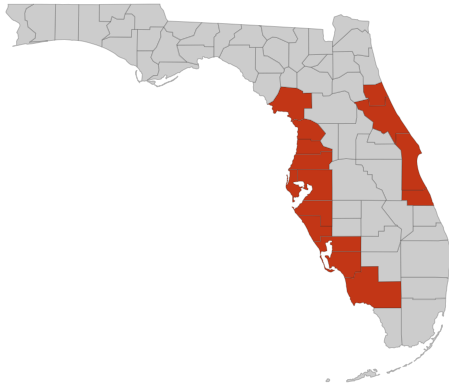

Verbenaceae

Also known as Verbena tampensis

Plant Specifics

- Size: 1-1.5 ft
- Life Span: Annual to short-lived perennial
- Flower Color: Purple
- Phenology: Evergreen. Blooms most heavily in spring.
- Habitats: Mesic flatwoods, live oak-cabbage palm hammc Edges and clearings.

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

Landscaping

- Recommended Uses: Wildflower garden.
- Light: ☀ Full Sun
- Moisture Tolerance: Usually moist, occasional inundation ----- to Very long very dry periods
- Salt Water Flooding Tolerance: Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.
- Salt Spray Tolerance: Low/no tolerance of salty wind or direct salt spray
- Soil/Substrate: Sand

Wildlife

Attracts butterflies, hummingbird moths, and bees.

