

Penstemon multiflorus

Photo by Eleanor Dietrich. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Manyflower Beardtongue

Plantaginaceae

Also known as Penstemon digitalis var. multiflorus

Plant Specifics

Size: 1.5 to 3 ft tall by 2-3 ft wide

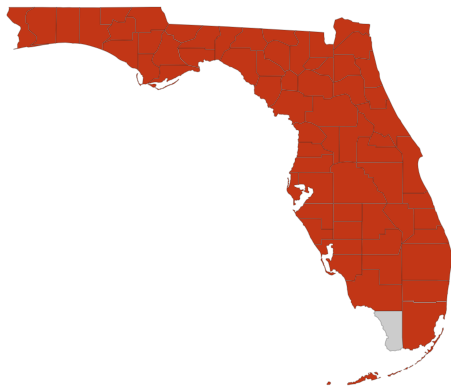

Life Span: Long-lived perennial

Flower Color: White

Phenology: Blooms spring-fall. Dies back in winter to few (or no) basal leaves.

Habitats: Dry flatwoods, sandhill, ruderal areas. Well-drain upland habitats

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

Landscaping

Recommended Uses:

Light: ☀ Full Sun, ☁ Part Shade

Moisture Tolerance: Not wet but not extremely dry ----- to ----- Ver long very dry periods

Salt Water Flooding Tolerance: Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.

Salt Spray Tolerance: Low/no tolerance of salty wind or direct salt spray

Soil/Substrate: Sand

Wildlife

2002-2022, Copyright Florida Native Plant Society

Said by Bok Tower to sometimes attract hummingbirds.

Seeds likely dispersed by wind.

Larval host to Baltimore checkerspot (Euphydryas phaet

Attracts bees.