

Salvia azurea

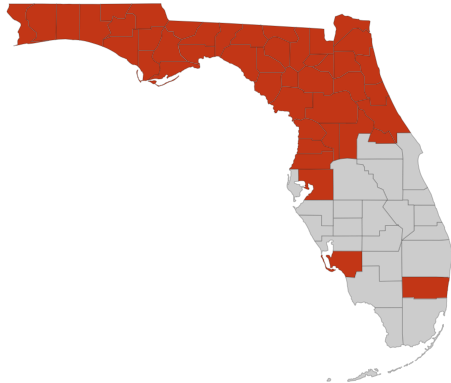

Photo by Eleanor Dietrich. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Blue Sage, Azure Blue Sage Lamiaceae (Labiatae)

Plant Specifics

- Size: 3-5 ft tall by 2-4 ft wide
- Life Span: Short-lived perennial
- Flower Color: Blue, white
- Phenology: In north Florida, winter dormant and blooms July to October. In south Florida, may grow and bloom in winter.
- Habitats: Flatwoods, sandhills, pine-oak-hickory woods, secondary woods.

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

Landscaping

- Recommended Uses: Wildflower garden, suitable for naturalizing.
- Light: ☀ Full Sun
- Moisture Tolerance: Not wet but not extremely dry ----- to ----- Very long very dry periods
- Salt Water Flooding Tolerance: Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.
- Salt Spray Tolerance: Low/no tolerance of salty wind or direct salt spray
- Soil/Substrate: Clay, Loam, Sand

Wildlife

Nectar source for native bees, including bumblebees, and other pollinators (Xerces Society)..

Attracts butterflies

