

Silphium asteriscus

Photo by Mark Hutchinson. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Starry Rosinweed

Asteraceae (Compositae)

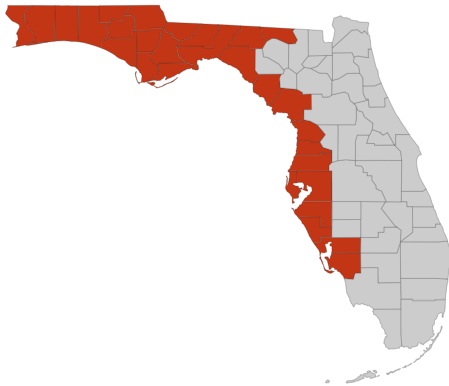

Plant Specifics

- Size: 2.0 to 5.0 ft tall by 1.0 to 2.0 ft wide
- Life Span: Short-lived perennial
- Flower Color: Yellow
- Phenology: Dormant in cold areas but may grow year-round where warm.
- Habitats: Moist roadsides, flatwoods, sandhill, scrub.

Landscaping

- Recommended Uses: Wildflower garden.
- Light: ☀ Full Sun, ☁ Part Shade
- Moisture Tolerance: Somewhat moist, no flooding ----- to ----- Somewhat long very dry periods
- Salt Water Flooding Tolerance: Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.
- Salt Spray Tolerance: Low/no tolerance of salty wind or direct salt spray
- Soil/Substrate: Loam, Sand

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

2002-2022, Copyright Florida Native Plant Society

Wildlife

Seeds eaten by birds.

- Attracts butterflies
- Attracts bees