

Trichostema dichotomum

Photo by Mark Hutchinson. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

2002-2022, Copyright Florida Native Plant Society

Forked Bluecurls

Lamiaceae (Labiatae)

Plant Specifics

Size:	2-3 ft tall by 1-2 ft wide
Life Span:	Annual
Flower Color:	Blue
Habitats:	Scrub, xeric hammock, overgrown sandhill, flatwoods.

Landscaping

Recommended Uses:	Wildflower garden. Appreciated for its interesting flowers and nectar plant. Grow as annual.
Light:	☀ Full Sun
Moisture Tolerance:	Not wet but not extremely dry ----- to ----- Ver long very dry periods
Salt Water Flooding Tolerance:	Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.
Salt Spray Tolerance:	Moderate. Tolerant of salty wind and may ge some salt spray. Exposure to salt spray would be uncommon (major storms).
Soil/Substrate:	Sand

Wildlife

Attracts various pollinators, especially bees.. Documented bees include Caupolicana electa and Dialictus placidensis (Deyrup et al. 2002).