

Viburnum obovatum

© 2011 Mark Hutchinson

Photo by Mark Hutchinson, Hernando Chapter FNPS. Photograph belongs to the photographer who allows use for FNPS purposes only. Please contact the photographer for all other uses.

Walter's Viburnum "Mrs .Schillers Delight"

Adoxaceae

Plant Specifics

Size: 2-5 ft by tall by 3-5 ft wide with new plants grow from rhizomes (underground stems) to form clones.

Life Span: Long-lived perennial

Flower Color: White

Fruit Color: Black

Phenology: Tardily deciduous leafing out shortly after the old leaves fall. Blooms late winter-early spring. Fruits ripen late summer-early fall.

Habitats: Cultivated as an ornamental.

Natural Range in Florida

USDA Zones

Suitable to grow in:

Landscaping

Recommended Uses: Slowly growing. Foundation plant, low hed or mass planting. This is a dwarf cultivar of Walter's viburnum. It also tends to be more drought tolerant.

Light: ☀ Full Sun, ☁ Part Shade

Moisture Tolerance: Somewhat moist, no flooding ----- to -----
Somewhat long very dry periods

Salt Water Flooding Tolerance: Not salt tolerant of inundation by salty or brackish water.

Salt Spray Tolerance: Low/no tolerance of salty wind or direct salt spray

2002-2022, Copyright Florida Native Plant Society

Soil/Substrate: Humus (organic, upland), Sand

Wildlife

Birds and other wildlife consume the fruit.

Larval host for the spring azure butterfly (Celastrina lador)
Attract a wide range of pollinators. Good cover plant.